FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PROSPERITY BANCSHARES, INC.® COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF TEXAS BANKERS, INC.

HOUSTON, January 3, 2012. Prosperity Bancshares, Inc.® (NYSE: PB) completed the previously announced acquisition of Texas Bankers, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Bank of Texas, Austin, Texas. The transaction continues Prosperity's strategic growth and expansion of the franchise in Central Texas.

Prosperity, which began trading on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the symbol "PB" on Wednesday, December 28, 2011, was recently named the #1 bank in America by Forbes in their "2012 Best Banks in America" report.

The three (3) Bank of Texas banking offices in the Austin, Texas CMSA consist of a location in Rollingwood, which will be consolidated with Prosperity's Westlake location and remains in the old Bank of Texas' Rollingwood banking office; one banking center in downtown Austin, which will be consolidated into Prosperity's downtown Austin location; and another banking center in Thorndale. Prosperity will now operate thirty-four (34) banking centers in the Central Texas area including Austin and San Antonio.

Texas Bankers, Inc. reported total deposits of $63.1 million, total loans of $30.5 million and total assets of $70.7 million on September 30, 2011.

“Safe Harbor” Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This release contains, and the remarks by Prosperity’s management on the conference call may contain, forward-looking statements within the meaning of the securities laws that are based on current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about Prosperity, and its subsidiaries. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside of Prosperity’s control, that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include but are not limited to whether Prosperity can: successfully identify acquisition targets and integrate the businesses of acquired companies and banks; continue to sustain its current internal growth rate or total growth rate; provide products and services that appeal to its customers; continue to have access to debt and equity capital markets; and achieve its sales objectives. Other risks include, but are not limited to: the possibility that credit quality could deteriorate; actions of competitors; changes in laws and regulations (including changes in governmental interpretations of regulations and changes in accounting standards); a deterioration or downgrade in the credit quality and credit agency ratings of the securities in Prosperity’s securities portfolio; customer and consumer demand, including customer and consumer response to marketing; effectiveness of spending, investments or programs; fluctuations in the cost and availability of supply chain resources; economic conditions, including currency rate fluctuations and interest rate fluctuations; weather; and the stock price volatility associated with “small-cap” companies. These and various other factors are discussed in Prosperity’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and other reports and statements Prosperity has filed with the SEC. Copies of the SEC filings for Prosperity Bancshares, Inc.[®] may be downloaded from the Internet at no charge from www.prosperitybanktx.com.
